GT12 Chassis/Front End Submission Form

Under rule 5.2 of the BRCA GT12 construction rules, GT12 cars must be homologated before being eligible for BRCA competition. This rule is reproduced below (although reference to the full rule document is strongly advised)

5.2 Front Suspension, Chassis shape and hole pattern to be homologated, Manufacturers may submit a maximum of 3 designs per 12 month period. Legal chassis' listed in Appendix 2. Legal front suspension designs listed in Appendix 3.
- No modifications to chassis
- Design may be offered in a "alloy" or "composite" version
- Edges may be smoothed / sanded / sealed
- Chassis and Front Suspension components must be commercially available

Manufacturer Name:

Chassis/Kit Name: Kit Part Number:

Front End Name:

Front End Part number(s):

Chassis Part Number:

Submission Date:__/__/20__   Submission Number: i.e. first submission

    Manufacturer/retailer Contact Name:

    Contact Tel No:

    Contact email:

    Company Name:

    Street Address 1:

    Street Address 2:

    County/ province:

    City:

    Country: Post/Zip Code:

Email completed form to gt.chair@brca.org and submit a sample chassis and/or Front End parts to the GT12 Chairman. Successful submission will result in the sample(s) being retained for future reference.

Total PASS votes ____   Total FAIL votes ____

The BRCA GT Section Committee hereby approve/reject the submitted sample(s).

Signed:_____   Date:__/__/20__

If rejected, please see the reviewer comments relating to each view. Once changes have been made, please resubmit with a new submission proposal and amend the submission number (eg second submission).

All submissions, whether approved or rejected, will be kept on record by the BRCA for future reference if required. Submission documents are not for the use of third parties and are solely for the legitimate use of the BRCA. If a copy is required by the manufacturer/ distributor of the individual bodyshell, please contact the GT Section Chairman on gt.chair@brca.org